Character Pack 7: You are trying to create links. However, this website prevents you from doing this. Sorry! This link was removed from its page. This was a fantastic package, beyond all expectation and I'm regretting there is no character kits available for sale right now. This is not for sale yet, merely for preview, but if someone expresses interest please contact me. I offer 20% off if you are a current user, which is much more than they could make on a character kit, and then I refund your money if you are not interested. Thanks again for your continued support and I hope this package is worth what you paid for it. The other characters may be freely used on all projects, I don't own them, they belong to the players who have made them. Download may not work, as these are test packages only and will be subjected to review before final release to the public. (Note for French-speaking users: there is a French version of this tutorial under the name 'Une petite do pendant à ça'. More information is located here or in the description below, but it's mostly the same tutorial.) GM Collection The following is a beginner's pack of fantasy heroine characters suitable for RPG Maker MV and you can make up your own names. The pack focuses mainly on the aesthetic and personality aspects of characters, but contains a set of parameters you could use to create your own original fantasy heroine, tweaking the parameter to suit your own style. I've also included some unchangeable parameters, such as the starting experience. The females in this pack begin at level 16 and the males at level 13, the level up speed has not been changed. If you are colour blind, they should come up in the correct Pantone colour. Enjoy! Unchangeable Parameters: Those parameters and features that are unchangeable and set in stone. Please do not edit them! Name: Comment: Unchangeable Functions: * All actions controlled by the GM. Mysterious Experience: Some
